Instructions for Authors

The primary purpose of the journal is to publish articles, documents, notes, and reviews concerning the political, military, social, economic, and cultural history of Ohio and the Middle West. The editors welcome studies in general fields of American history if they possess obvious relevance to Ohio and the Middle West.

Authors are asked to submit two double-spaced typed copies of their manuscripts. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the article. Upon acceptance for publication, please check with editor concerning submission of digital files to speed typesetting. Contributions should be addressed to the Editor, Ohio History, Ohio Historical Center, 1982 Velma Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43211-2497. The society accepts no responsibility for facts and opinions expressed by the authors.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts, America: History and Life, Abstracts of Popular Culture, Recently Published Articles, and The Journal of American History. Back issues, reprints, and microfilm editions are available through the Ohio Historical Society and University Microfilms.
